“ My sincerest sympathy to the family in the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in prayer to God; He is cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). It is also hoped that the loving expressions of caring from family and friends will also provide comfort.

“ Shelby was such a kind soul that always had a way of making me laugh. I work in the VWC Bristol Regional Office, but we met about 16 years ago in Richmond at a training session. From then on, we shared emails when we had questions about cases or procedures and we would have dinner in Richmond at least once a year when we were there for training. She will be missed very much. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
