“Michelle was the only friend I made when I first went away to college. She had the biggest heart. I just learned of this passing as we did not stay close. I’m sure anyone who knew her knows just how special she was under everything. I’m glad she is free.

Michelle i knew u for a short period of time but u was a very soft spoken sweet person and always listened when i needed to talk. Im soo happy to have met you and being able to spend what time i did with you, wish it could have been longer but God has his reasons for everything he does even though we might not understand! May you rest in peace and one thing for sure you will always and forever be in many people's hearts for you were loved by many many people!! Until i see you again rest in peace! ❤️❤️❤️

“ I find this difficult to digest. I watched her grow up dancing with Brittney. My heart aches wishing this was not so. For her mom, my love as as a mom who loves her daughter. For her family, my love as friends for many years as they grew up. For her son, he'll always know her love. Karen
