“ A POEM FOR YOU

I Do Not Go Alone

*If Death should beckon me with outstretched hand
And whisper softly
of "an unknown land"
I shall not be afraid to go For though the path
I do not know
I take Death's hand
without a fear,
For he who safely
brought me here
Will also take me
safely back,
And though in many things I lack He will not let me go alone
Into the "valley
that's unknown"
So I reach out and take Death's hand And journey to the "Promised Land"!*

Rest in Peace, Mom I love you

“ Hi Grandma, I'm going to miss you, I already do. I hope you like it in heaven. I do hope you say hello to mom for me and the family. Give her hugs and kisses for us. You are the best grandma. We will keep Grandad on his toes till his day comes to meet you again. I remember you used to call me brown eyed picky pie. I guess I was a little picky when I was younger. Life was great with you in it. Thank you for all you've done for me. I will never forget you. Rest on the wings of the lord. I love you Grandma. Please watch over me and the rest of the family. You are loved and you will be missed. RIP

“ Doug and I were both saddened by the news of Mildred's passing. She was a wonderful daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend. Her love for her family and friends truly ran deep. May the memories of her love ease your grief.

Some of my fondest childhood memories (birthday parties, playing kickball, playing house in the basement, etc.) were spent with the Muddiman family. Mildred always made me and my sister, Brenda feel like we were a part of the family. For this, I would like to thank her and the rest of the family.

Doug and I are truly sorry for your loss and our hearts go out to each and everyone of you. If you need anything please do not hesitate to call us.

In closing, I found the below saying that I feel says it all. The saying was taken from a headstone somewhere in Ireland.

"Death leaves a hearthach no one can heal, love leaves a memory that no one can steal."

With love and sympathy,

Linda & Doug

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
