

Miyoko McCasland

July 10, 1946 - August 20, 2022

Miyoko McCasland unexpectedly passed away at home....Miyoko rejoins her husband she lost 7 years ago just 13 days after their 44th wedding anniversary....Miyoko also gets be with her oldest son Kirby which she lost 12 years ago....Miyoko was survived by her youngest son Craig and his girlfriend (Jen) and her granddaughter Alicia...These past 2 years have been the happiest she's been since losing her oldest son...It was amazing to see her live and enjoy her life again and laughing and even having a temper tantrum because she didn't and her granddaughter didn't get their slurpee or milkshakes....Miyoko was the light that brought everyone together it didn't matter if she just meet you or knew you for the last 20 years she always gave everyone the same amount of love no matter what....She also always had to give everyone a hug....She always had so much love to share with everyone....She truly will be missed by everyone especially her son and his growing family....We know it's not forever but it feels like it until we can be together again....You always be with us and when we close our eyes we can see you and feel your hugs.....We all miss you Mimi, love you bunches and bunches Craig, Jen, Munchkin, and soon our triplet girls.

Tribute Wall

MS

“Miyoko is the kind of friend that everyone should have in their lives. I am so grateful that she was in mine. What I will miss most is Miyoko talking about her life in Japan as a child and young lady before meeting the love of her life, Bob. I love my Miyoko and will miss her until the day Jesus comes back for His own and reunites our family again. I am very thankful for all the memories we made that will have to keep me until that day.

Mona Sargent

Mona Sargent - September 10, 2022 at 08:32 AM