“ Boye how time flys and some people you think will be around forever. I know this is late but they say it never too late.. it doesn't matter what one may say.. You will forever be in my heart ❤️ Although I could not be there you know I was there in spirit.. I know you and Papa are united again your soulmate. That Southern charm you possessed, you knew how to do it, say it, fix it and cook it.. Molly's kitchen can't be matched you'll forever be missed.. Love u ❤️

“ Mollie was a strong, black woman and she will greatly missed. She and her Husband, Johnny, came to my ,wife and I need in 2019, when we need , a place to stay, they didn't hesitate to let us stay @ their house. I saw how and Johnny, interacted with each other, they were a beautiful couples 🥰. God bless 🙏 their souls, I know, they are together in heaven!!

“ The last time I spoke to Mollie we reminisced about the good times we had together with our families. That's what life is protecting and raising your children so they can stand in the world and boldly raise the next generation. And most important taking time to enjoy each other. Mollie was a good mother and sister-in-law. We supported each other in this mission. Her life is a testament to this. You all should take solace in knowing this. And she, your dad and we all are proud how successful you all are. Love, Aunt Deborah.
