

Momcilo Cvijanovic

June 27, 1935 - September 6, 2024

Momcilo Cvijanovic passed away peacefully, ascending at the age of 89. Born in Yugoslavia, his incredible life journey led him to Virginia, where he spent the majority of his life, including his final years. An engineer for the majority of his career, his life in retirement was hardly sedentary: he was a prolific ballroom dancer who regularly practiced yoga, loved to play bridge, attended church faithfully, and gardened consistently (always sharing what he had grown). His vigor, strength, and positivity were appreciated and loved by all those that knew him. He was an amazing person who was always willing to help anyone in need; for all these reasons and many more, he will be missed dearly.

He is survived by his former wife Stana Cvijanovic, his sons Steven Cvijanovich and Dragutin Cvijanovic, and daughter Susan (Mark) Serino; his grandson Anthony (Kaela) Serino, his granddaughters Meghan Hannon and Katie Cvijanovic; his nephew Momir (Carla) Guzijan, and his grandnephews Marko (Jelena Kos) Guzijan and Nikola (Leia) Guzijan.

While his family is accepting flowers, a charitable donation to the CancerCare Co-Payment Assistance Foundation (<https://www.cancercare.org/copayfoundation>) as an alternate form of remembrance is also welcome.

“ We just heard today about Mo and wanted to extend our deepest condolences.

He truly was a bright light in our Senior Silver Sneakers exercise class - always so friendly and with a smile the could light up the room.

We will never forget how he would add his own dance moves to the exercises, grooving to the beat of his favorite songs . He loved sharing his honey & lemon juice elixir with all of us, always with that knowing smile, as if he had the secret to happiness.

Mo was an instant friend to everyone.

We sang "Happy birthday" in class to him on his last birthday - it was a joyful moment that we all shared . Very sorry for your loss and the pain of missing this wonderful man. May God bless you and your families during this difficult time . Hold onto those precious memories; they will keep his spirit alive!!

He will be missed ..he always made everyone laugh .

God bless
