“ Aunt Lynn, Chistine, and family- I'm sorry that we lost Uncle Morris. He was a great one!

I always looked forward to our trips to visit and spending time together. I have fond memories of his inviting and welcoming demeanor, magic tricks performed, and making toys for us in his shop when we were kids.

As a an aspiring artist growing up, he was an inspiration to me and had fun stories to tell. I remember hearing of battles with raccoons, Idi Amin hiding in the neighborhood, and going to church with the actress that played Cat Woman.

Uncle Morris gave me a red swiss army knife many years ago when I earned an Eagle Scout award. Upon hearing of his passing last week, I carried around a red swiss army knife in his honor.

My condolences to you Aunt Lynn and Christine! And my thoughts are with you. Uncle Morris- Love and thanks for the good times we shares! Until next time...

“ Sweet Christine, now I understand why you have been on my mind so much these last few weeks. My heart goes out to you and your mom - you know how I love your dad! I hate that the passing of time has meant that we haven't seen each other in way too long. I always knew your family would be a safe haven if I needed one, and will never forget his coming to give Jennifer a blessing when she was sick and I was panicked. Or when I was in labor with Clark and you had to go teach and offered to have your daddy come sit with me! I love you all so much. Morris Musig was a great man and a great father. Hugs.
