“ I still remember when we really met. I was with my folks at Uncle Wallace's Lions Club pancake fundraiser above the fire station. I was just a kid. I thought she was really cool. I found out later she was a bank vice president. I loved knowing that women could have those sorts of positions and a family. She was so lovely, gregarious, smart with a quick wit and a big heart. I love knowing that my grandmother, Lorraine, other family members and friends.. were/are there to help her transition. What a love feast they must be having. I have been very blessed to have some amazing dynamic and strong female presences in my life, for which I am extremely grateful. Thank you, Myrtle, for being one of them.

Sending you all lots of Love.
