“ I will always remember how she treated me as a teenager for the first time when taking her sister inlaw to the movies and other times in the near future! She sure took the shyness of a 16-year-old out and taught me to just be myself when eating at someone else's home. I was very shy in those days, but boy did she open a can of worms! I ate not just one plate but two! Which I never did anywhere else! You know what kind of person she was with the way she took care of her kids and the way she treated other people in her home! Yes Leah you will be missed greatly! Thank you for the way you treated me as a very young teenager and later on as a grown-up later on! Love always and forever your brother inlaw. Donnie Carter!
p.s. THANKS FOR TAKING LENA AND ME TO THE MOVIES!
