“ I knew. Nancy (aunt Nancy) as I knew her when I was little. She and my mother were best friends along time ago. Betty Keshka, was my mom. Though many years have passed and we lost touch, Aunt Nancy and her beautiful eggs often came up. I still have 3 gorgeous eggs, that I'm passing onto my daughter. Our blessings go out to her family with much love. Teri Keshka -Deak

“ Nancy was always so nice to me. A very sweet lady. I loved doing arts and crafts with her. She always had good things to say about my artwork. She was very active in the "Park". One of the Original Manassas Park old heads! God bless you Nancy!

“ Always a beautiful and gracious lady. You were our Avon lady when I met you. You were my mother's best friend for more years than I can remember. We never knew what to expect from you crazy ladies, lol. I'll always remember some of the Halloween costumes you came up with. I will also remember how talented you were and the beautiful Faberge eggs you made. You were a very special lady in so many ways and I'm honored to have known you. You enjoyed life to the fullest and I know that with you and my mother and Vivian, Heaven is a different place. Keep it rockin' up there.

I send my love and condolences to those you left behind.

“ I was saddened to hear of Nancy's passing. Nancy was a wonderful woman and was always a pleasure to see. It just won't be the same without her at auxiliary gatherings, she was such a big part of it. Please know your family is in my prayers.
