“ One memory is from the church suppers and your mother always made baked potatoe salad. To this day we call it Nancy Payne's potatoes.

“ Sorry to have heard of your mother's passing. My parents saw Nancy when we lost Rick Hendershot and she told Dad she wasn't well. Mom and Dad were thinking of her last week and we learned from Becky West of her passing. You mom was a true lady in every sense of the word with some wonderful memories left us by your parents. No more suffering. Carolyn Malenick on behalf of Steve and Clara Lou Malenick..

“ Nancy was a very special friend and will miss her sweet smile and friendship. We were four couples that had lunch together monthly, so sad there are only four of us left.

“ Best second mom to me. I will never forget when she took me aside and prayed with me one time when my mom was going through chemo and I was so sad. She was so loving and caring. Beautiful inside and out. Love you so much. Donna Space Corryton, TN
