“ I was a class mate of Nancy's at Loudoun County High School, graduating in the class of '56. I remember her as being a very sweet person, friendly to all she met.

Please accept my condolences for your loss.

“ curtis, we are sorry to hear about the passing of nancy. we have been gone from manassas for over 18 years, but keep in touch with lois and dick ray. do you remember the time we were out in your boat with jack hanson after the lions club charity ball, and the motor died, and the coast guard had to tow us back to shore?
