“ I knew Bill and Nancy for years. She was always such a special lady and Bill was one of the most talented personalities at WMAL. Nancy and Bill were tops in every way and, as you would expect, their family grew into the same value mode. This is a sad loss for all of them and they have my sincere condolences. HG

“ Dear family and friends: I am saddened by the news of Nancy's death. She and I shared many open hearted conversations as we were both widowed around the same time. My husband and I knew both Bill and Nancy, and enjoyed their humor, warmth, and strong faith. Nancy and I comforted each other, and shared many of our memories about our lives as married women, and the struggles of being widows. She will be kept in my prayers, and I know that she is experiencing the beatific vision, and the glory of heaven. God bless her family.

“ Dear Family,
I worked with Nancy for years in the doctors office in the Tenley building in Rockville and we even carpooled for awhile. She was always a lot of fun to be with.
My deepest sympathy to all of you.

“ To the Trumbull Family,
I am deeply saddened to learn of both your Mom and Dad's passing. I spend nine and a half years working at WMAL and while our on air shifts never dovetailed, he was often in the office when I was there working on my next show. He was an amazingly talented yet humble and kind man. He had a delicious sense of humor with an infectious laugh. He always had a kind word. Whenever I was in your Mom's company, she was wonderfully warm and gentle. And your Dad loved her dearly! May your memories be sweet and may you be comforted by their well lived lives.
With much sympathy,
