

Naomi Grace DeLashmutt

March 11, 1925 - January 7, 2019

Naomi Grace DeLashmutt, age 93 of Nokesville, Virginia, formerly of Sioux City, Iowa, peacefully joined her husband Richard with the Heavenly Father on January 7, 2019.

Naomi was born in Tekamah, Nebraska, March 11, 1925. Naomi, a woman ahead of her time, received a Nursing degree in Boise, Idaho, where she met her future husband, Richard, at a military sponsored dance. They were married shortly after she graduated on November 17, 1946. They continued their life together in Sioux City, Iowa. They had four daughters, Pam, Ava, Cindy and Renee, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Naomi was a long time Registered Nurse in many fields, even continuing into her 80's as a transport nurse for elderly nursing home patients.

Naomi is preceded in death by her husband Richard and daughter Ava. She was accomplished as a knitter, winning many awards, a story teller and a humorist.

Services will be at 4:00 pm on Thursday January 10th at Brentsville Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Breast Cancer Association (Naomi was a Breast Cancer survivor), Alzheimer's Association or to Brentsville Presbyterian Church.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty. Naomi is at Peace with our Lord and her husband, wearing her red lipstick and singing her beloved hymns of Praise.

Previous Events

Service

JAN 10. 4:00 PM (ET)

Brentsville Presbyterian Church
12305 Bristow Road
Bristow, VA

Tribute Wall

Trenton
Delashmu

“ Trenton Delashmutter sent a virtual gift in memory of Naomi Grace Delashmutter

Trenton Delashmutter - February 15, 2020 at 10:18 PM

“ To the Delashmutter family, Buddy and I were sorry to hear of Naomi's passing. She was so warm and friendly with a beautiful smile. We were always happy to see her when she came to church. She will be missed by our Brentsville Presbyterian Church family. You're in our prayers. Loretta, Buddy & Chip Croushorn

Loretta Croushorn - January 11, 2019 at 07:47 PM