“ My deepest sympathy to you. Mrs. Richey was a lovely lady. She had such a love for flowers. Besides being a chartered member of St. Mark's, she and your family will be remembered for the beauty flowers that was always on the altar.

May God bless you during this difficult time.

“ With our Sympathy. We were saddened when we learned of Mrs. Richey. We knew how much Don and Pam wanted to come home to see her. Your Mom was always so friendly, and talented, and we knew what a good Mother she was from the wonderful children she raised.

She kept up with the times, Pam told us she used her computer to email her family and Mandy kept in touch with her grandmother by email. From what I understood she liked political cartoons--I know she would have been happy with the election results! Right!?

No one can feel the sorrow that you bear--our throught are with you all. Margaret and Shirrell
