

Nethaniel Moore

June 17, 1985 - August 31, 2009

NETHANIEL THOMAS MOORE (NATE), 24, of Manassas Virginia died Monday evening August 31, 2009 in a single car accident while traveling. He was born June 17th, 1985 and is survived by his loving parents, Kenneth and Sheryle Moore, and cherished brother, Justin Lee Allison Moore. He is also survived by several aunts and uncles, many cousins who were dear to his heart and many close friends. His beloved grandparents, John and Beverly Allison and Vernon and Myrtle Moore, precede him in death.

Nate was a lifetime resident of Manassas and attended Osbourn Park High School. He attended Northern Virginia Community College in anticipation of transfer to a university. He was the owner of a small engine repair business, EN Enterprises. He loved to snowboard and was a respected contributor to several on-line forums, ranging from his beloved Nissan (280sx) to politics. He loved to sing, had inherited a love of growing the rare and unusual from his grandmother, and perhaps most of all, he loved the time he spent with his friends and family. Nate was a bright light with a unique spirit and he will be greatly missed by family and friends.

The family will receive friends from 2:00-4:00 & 7:00-9:00 P.M. Friday, September 4, 2009 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia. A memorial service will be held 11:00 A.M. Saturday, September 5, 2009 at Buckhall United Methodist Church, 10251 Moore Drive, Manassas with Rev. John F. Hull officiating. Interment will be private.

The family would like to suggest donations to the American Red Cross Blood Drive in memory of Nethaniel. This was something he did regularly and took great pride in doing. Call an old friend, hug a relative, reconnect. Nate's love of family and friends was enormous.

Condolences may be sent to www.piercefh.com.

“ I went to school (Parkside & OP) with Nate. I mostly remember him at Parkside Middle; he played the cello with me and Brain Yo in orchestra class. He is going to be greatly missed!!! Him and his family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My heart goes out to you. No words and no human can fill the hole that Nate's death has left in your lives, but God can heal the hurt if you let Him. I pray that you will lean on Him and find the peace and comfort that you need in the days ahead. Cherish all the wonderful memories of the happy years you shared on earth, and look forward to a joyful reunion one day.

Blessings, Laura

“ I remember Nate as a child riding his bike around Buckhall and his kindness toward everyone. I remember him expressing his sorrow for my loss when my grandfather died, even though I'm certain her felt the loss as much as me. I may not understand why he was called to be angel so early, but know he'll be looking out for all of us from above with all those that have gone before. Kenny, Sheryle and Justin, you have my prayers. God Blessed you with an angel and now he's called him home. God bless you all in this time.

“ Dear Moore Family,
Nate was such a genuine and kind person, as he always brightened our day when he joined us in singing with the choir. He always made it a point to say hello. We will always remember his kindness. May the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, guard each of your hearts...(Philippians 4:6, 7)
