“ As time goes on there is not a day in which we do not reflect on the good times we had with you Nick. Driving by your house, or looking out from our yard to yours---we find ourselves anticipating running into one another...Rose & Al, it was an honor to know your son and privilege to have had a friendship with him. We are always here for you guys if you needs us. Rest in peace 'Nicky Boy.' We miss you buddy.

“ I had the privilege of working with Nick during his time with Stanley Associates. While he reported to me as his supervisor I feel I can safely say that I learned far more from him than he likely learned from me.

Nick never accepted mediocrity in work, friends, or family. His drive to improve himself seemed relentless and I knew that while he started under me as a subordinate it was always clear that Nick was the sort of person who was destined for bigger and better things.

Nick, your great humility and ability to bring calm to even the darkest of storms will be sorely missed. You will not be soon forgotten.

“ I had the opportunity to meet Nick at a time in his life he found to be emotionally challenging. Even during that time he acted with much grace. His warmth and kindness were constant as was his wit. Most of all, he shined when he spoke of his children and his family. He will be very much missed and was very much an inspiration to all who knew him.

“ I worked with Nick over the last 6 or so months, and it was an honor to have made his acquaintance; he was always a true professional with the highest standards of excellence. However, what I will remember most were those private moments when we talked about our families, and how he talked with adoration about his little girls, about their time at Disney and their plans to hang out this summer. I could tell that he was a man that put family at the top of his list, and that is a trait that I know God admired in him. I send my deepest condolences to the family, and pray that you all will be strengthened during this tough time. It's never easy when mourning such a great loss, but I know there is comfort to be had in Him who created Nick as special and wonderful as he was.

“Nick's beautiful, infectious smile will forever live on the shores and water at Indian Lake. I will always remember him playing with his beautiful girls for hours on end in the water, pulling them in the tube, and hearing them shout and giggle with joy, as he drove them round and a round on the jet ski. He never tired of playing with them, and was always so patient and loving with them. Al and Rose, my heart breaks for your loss of such a beautiful, loving son. His devotion to you was always so evident, and yours to him as well. May God comfort both of you, the girls, Stacey and her family, till you a joined again with Nick. Love and prayers for strength and healing Lladel

“ Nicholas,

Although we feel you left us too soon, we can celebrate your life and cherish the beautiful memories you generously created with family and friends. We pray that you know how dearly you are loved and how very much you will be missed.

To your parents and our dear friends, Rose and Al, take comfort in the warm memories only Nicholas could have given you. Marvel in sharing the joys of his beautiful daughters as they grow into lovely women. Find strength in your love for each other and your family. Know that we love you. We pray for your peace and comfort and for your spirits to soon be filled again with joy and laughter.

*You are in our hearts,

“ I still remember the first time that we met at RMA summer school. Who would of thought we would have met there when you lived right down the street from me. I wish things were different and we didn't have to say goodbye like this. You were a great man and touch many peoples lives to include mine. Because of you I have some long time friends to include my soon to be husband. The good old Don Pablos days to our Monday night Outback nights. Your parents did an amazing job raising a great man. I wish we had more time. Thank you for being the man that you were and being my best friend during a time in my life. I hope your girls grow up knowing how great their daddy was. Miss you Nick!!!
