

Nina Gayle Hudson-Ferguson

September 5, 1959 - February 23, 2022

Nina Gayle Hudson-Ferguson, Ph.D., 62, of Haymarket, Virginia, passed away on Wednesday

February 23, 2022. Nina was born on September 5, 1959, in Charleroi, Pennsylvania to Frohsine Hudson and Claude Smith.

Nina grew up in Brooklyn, New York where she graduated from high school and eventually would relocate to North Carolina where she met her husband, James Ferguson. They wed in May 1986, and relocated to Houston, Texas. While in Texas, Nina answered God's calling in 1996, and became a licensed minister. Her spiritual gift of help was shown through her ministry and work with people in substance recovery.

Nina went on to earn her MBA from California University of Pennsylvania, a Master's in Psychology from Phoenix University and her Doctorate in Health

Administration from Phoenix

University.

Nina loved being a servant of God and was the Assistant Pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in West Newton, PA. She selflessly gave of herself and her time and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

Nina was preceded in death by her mother Frohsine Hudson and father Claude Smith. She is survived by her husband James Ferguson, sons Herbert Sheppard of Donora PA, Aaron Ferguson (Genea) of Hampton, VA, Adam Ferguson (Catherine) of Newport News, VA, brothers, Myron Hudson of Pittsburgh, PA and Bruce Smith (Michelle) of Franklin, MI. She is also survived by two grandsons Malik Williams and Aaron T. Ferguson, grand-daughter, Audriannah Ferguson, one great-grandchild Atreus Lavious Taylor Roberts, Aunts, Carrie Stroud of Upper Marlboro, MD and Michelle Hudson, of Pittsburgh, PA, Uncle, Randall Hudson (Tia) of Chesapeake, VA and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. Services and interment will be held in Braddock, PA.
