“ To the Children and extended Family: I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a beloved family member is one of life's most difficult experiences to bear. I have learned from the Holy Bible how it is a loss for God also, since He never intended for anyone to die. In His great love and mercy, though, Jehovah "yearns" to reunite families again, because He has promised that "there is going to be a resurrection..." in the near future (John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15). We are invited and encouraged at Psalms 27:14 to 'hope in Jehovah God and take heart.' Soon, He will take action to 'rid the earth of death, disease, old age, and wickedness!' (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 33:24; Job 33:25; Psalms 37:9-11, 29, 34) For now, may you find comfort and support from each other, from friends, and by means of the Holy Bible. You have my deepest sympathy.

“ To Opal's families and friends. She is free at last from her medical problems. She is now with her Lord and Savior. She had a passion for quilting and has left quite a legacy. I am a proud owner of one of her bow tie quilts. You will be greatly missed Opal by your family and many friends.
