“ I remember being at Kristina's house all the time, especially getting ready for skating. Pam would always be there and we would have so much fun with, every time!! I remember her always dancing around with us and her smile never ever leaving her face! She was amazing, her happiness was contagious! I will never forget that laugh and smiling face! My prayers go out to the whole family!!

“ Pam and I have been friends for a very long time. I moved out of town, but when I'd come up to visit it's like I hadn't been gone at all. We had some good times and I'll always have great memories of Pam. I'll miss her big laugh, it's one of those from the gut laugh. RIP you will never be forgotten.
