“ My aunt Pam had the absolute brightest smile. Growing up visiting Virginia, I vividly remember walks through her neighborhood to the creek, fireworks on the 4th of July, concerts, just fun and happy and light times. You were so important to me growing up. You had my best friend in your daughter, Kim, and I'm just sad that my mom is sad. You fought so hard and we are so lucky to have had you in our lives.

I'm so sorry you aren't here, and I'm so happy you aren't hurting any more. We miss you. <3

“ I am sorry for your loss. I had the opportunity meeting Pamela several times through my cousin while she was being cared for at the nursing home. Pamela smile would brighten the room along with her kind Sprit. I will continue to walk for Pamela and others battling with MS including myself.

God bless your spirit in Heaven. May you rest in power. 🙏
