“ Dearest Pam - I will always remember those years in the Sheriff's Office (and way beyond as well!)and becoming friends with you. I thought you were the coolest person I knew and you were so down to earth, genuine and caring and we both wanted to help people. You did exactly that Pam - your life here was filled with meaning - you touched people's lives in ways you probably never imagined and the words written by others here are a testament to that. I so wish you could have found what you needed here but it wasn't to be. You will be greatly missed by all who knew you and in your 57 years you did remarkable things for other people that will never be forgotten. Be at peace friend and God Bless.

“ Thoughts and prayers to Pam's family and friends. The world has lost one of the kindest, most gentle and unselfish people I have ever known. She was so unique; she appeared to be so strong and tough but I only saw the gentle and caring person that she was. Rest in peace Pam.

“ My sweet Dear Pammy how I miss you so!!! My heart still breaks at the loss of not having you here with me. I try to take comfort in knowing you are happy and at peace now with Mom, Dad, Mommy and Martini. You suffered so on so many levels, but you were always there to help so many others. What a true tribute and testament to your life! I wish I could have saved you. I will never be able to overcome that devastation that I somehow failed you. What beautiful memories your friends have left for you here. The tears are rolling down my face reading them and how much you were truly loved by so many!!! Not a day goes by that I do not think of you or a night that I don't tell you how much I love and miss you, Mom and Dad. I like to picture you smiling down on me happy to be free of pain and suffering. Someday we will be together again. Love You My Sweet Pammy.
