“ Today, February 6, 2023, I learned of her death. I have known Pam for 44 years. We raised our families together. She was friendly to everyone. On February, 2023 at 8:30 AM I am having a Mass said for her at All Saints Catholic Church. I'm privileged to say that she was my best friend. A merciful God brought her home the day before Thanksgiving. He relieved her of the pain that a Cancer ridden body caused. Rest in peace, Pam. Love, Noreen

“ Pam, I will miss you and our friendship of over 40 years. The daily phone calls and all the fun times we had through the years. I am so glad that we continued our friendship and phone calls after Joe and I moved. May you now rest in peace and be out of your misery.
