“ Aunt Pat..God Bless you, you will be missed. I remember all those pool opening parties you use to have in Va so the cousins could start summer off right! Please be good now that your with mom again:D. Thank you for being you (that fiery bundle of joy) and want your family to know how awesome they are for the care and comfort they provided you. Love to all the Brown Clan.

Just learned of your Mom's passing and want you to all know you are in my prayers . Now is the time for memories to hold us together and see friends and family together again like so many times in the past. We never lose our loved ones just have a harder time telling them how much they are cherished and loved.
My prayers and thoughts are with you all.
