“ TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go, I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love around you, soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile, and say "Welcome Home".

When Mom passed on, Aunt Pat sent this to me. I just wanted to say that it helped me alot. I framed it and it hangs in my bedroom where i can see it.

We love you all and know what your going through. I wish i could be there. But I am in my heart.

*Love You & God Bless;

“ I guess I had the best of both worlds. Ms. Pat was like my second mom, my friend, my sunshine. I am lucky to have had the chance to be with this woman every week days for so many years. The cafeteria will never be the same. I will never walk by and not remember your sweet nature and your wonderful smile! I will never understand why you had to leave us so suddenly..... You will have a place in my heart for eternity.....
I love you "babe"

“ Pat, rest in peace my dear. You were a blessing to Vivian and I all of the years that we knew you. The pastor said you had a servants heart. We had just said that same thing the morning of the funeral. What a testimony of love you had when one took note of all the flowers that came in your name, the number of friends who came to the viewings at 2pm & 7pm. and then finally the sheer number of attendees to your funeral along with many many of the Police and Fire depts. of Fairfax. I told my sister on the way to the burial site that anyone passing the procession or as a pedestrian would obviously say, someone important has passed away. Well they were right, you were important because of all the love that you spread during your lifetime. May the Lord Bless you and keep you and your family. See you in heaven.
