

Patricia Dorothy Kouvaris

March 29, 1934 - August 26, 2022

Patricia (Patsy) Dorothy Kouvaris passed away August 26, 2022, at the age of 88, surrounded by her devoted family.

Patsy was born March 29, 1934, in Baltimore, Maryland, to George Conroy and Dorothy Mae Hall. She was the oldest of four children, beloved sister and friend to Robert, Carolyn, and Timothy.

Patsy grew up in Baltimore and moved to Atlanta, Georgia, in her late teens. Nevertheless, Patsy's heart remained in Baltimore along with the love of her life, Samuel Kouvaris. As love knows no bounds, they married in Atlanta on February 19, 1953. Patsy and Sam returned to Baltimore, where they nurtured four children and proudly watched them mature in their individual successes.

Patsy and Sam moved to Manassas, Virginia, but ultimately returned to Maryland where they settled indefinitely. Patsy worked in the classroom for Montgomery County Public Schools and valued her time helping students and supporting extracurricular activities. Patsy and Sam always enjoyed the Delmarva shore and often vacationed with their children in Ocean City, Maryland and Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. These trips would inspire their retirement, as they would spend 23 years in Rehoboth Beach making heartfelt memories with family and friends near and far. The beach was always their happy place and serves as such for their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Patsy is survived by her husband of 69 years, Samuel Kouvaris Sr., her four children and their families; Sam Jr. (Linda) Kouvaris, Pamela (Harry) Childress, Laura (Samuel Jr. (d)) Posey, Gust (Susan) Kouvaris as well as 13 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren, and brother, Timothy Hall. She is preceded by her father, George Conroy Hall; mother, Dorothy Mae Hall; sister, Carolyn; and brother, Robert.

“ To Pam & family, I remember your mother when she subbed for you when we taught 6th grade in the lower hall at Parkside & also the times we rented the trailer in Rehoboth where we often took Nathan & Matt when they were young.
I am sorry to hear of your mother’s passing. Take care, Sandy Kurz
