“ I will miss you my friend. We spent 48 years together on Castle Road and shared some good times together. You were always my source for gossip as you seemed to know everything that was going on in the neighborhood. I remember all the nights we sat on my front porch in the summer after our walks and just talked for hours about anything that came to mind. That was the good old days. I remember the time I took you to Hecht's with me and they were having a drawing. You won the drawing of $1000 and you bought me a bottle of my favorite perfume as my consolation prize. I will miss seeing you go by the house everyday going to the bank, waving to each other and sometimes stopping for a chat. I will always have a special place in my heart for you. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers and I pray they will find the strength and peace they need. Your friend, Barbara Eggert

“ Mrs. Scally, as I knew her as a child, was one of the best moms on the court, a strong woman with great kids, who were my best friends. She was a devoted friend to the family. She was with us in a very dark time. As with Jim, she is missed. I wish Mr. Scally, Terry, Janice, Michael and their family all the strength and moments of peace and memories to hold her dear.
