

Patricia Ann Wilcox

March 4, 1951 - February 3, 2026

Patricia Ann Wilcox, lovingly known to family and friends as Pat, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, February 3, 2026, at the age of 74. She was born on March 4, 1951, in New York and later made her home in Manassas Park, Virginia, where she built a life centered on family, dedication, and quiet joys.

Patricia graduated from Stonewall Jackson High School in 1969. She went on to work at NOVEC, where she devoted more than 20 years of service before retiring in 2018. She took pride in her work and the relationships she formed there, earning the respect of coworkers through her reliability and kindness.

In her free time, Patricia found happiness in the simple things. She was an avid bowler and enjoyed relaxing with diamond art and crossword puzzles. These hobbies reflected her patience, creativity, and love for keeping her mind engaged. Most of all, Patricia treasured time spent with her grandchildren. Being “Nana” was one of her greatest joys, and she loved watching them grow, laugh, and thrive.

Patricia was preceded in death by her father, John Alvarez, and her mother, Theresa Alvarez.

She leaves behind her brother, Charles Alvarez, and his wife, Linda, of Bumpass, Virginia; her three children, John Little and his partner Melanie Deighton of Scranton, Pennsylvania; Jennifer Torres and her husband

Douglas Torres of Bristow, Virginia; and Jessica Ramey and her husband Michael Ramey of Linden, Virginia. She is also survived by her cherished grandchildren, Austin Ramey, Isabella Torres, and Payton Little, who were the light of her life.
