

Patrick Michael McKinney Sr

March 17, 1950 - December 29, 2023

Michael was born on March 17th, 1950, in Brooklyn Park, MD. He passed peacefully at his home in Manassas, VA, on December 29th, 2023. He has gone to his eternal home in heaven with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Throughout his life, Michael was a certified auto mechanic and muscle car enthusiast. He finished restoring his own 1972 Chevrolet Chevelle in 2013. He loved driving it and entered many car shows. He won numerous awards, often placing in the top five. His close friends nicknamed him "Big Block Mike". He was a diehard Baltimore Ravens fan and enjoyed watching football no matter who was playing.

Michael met his soulmate, Susie McGowan, in 2009. The two quickly became inseparable and enjoyed many of the same activities and adventures. While Michael suffered from serious medical issues throughout their years together, Susie remained by his side caring for him both physically and emotionally. He was always able to pull through. Michael and Susie each had grown children when they started their relationship.

They were both thrilled that all of their children were supportive and happy about their new bond. When Michael needed any of the Children, they were there to help and support him. Michael and Susie love all of their children dearly and were always grateful to have all of them in their lives.

“ My Darling Michael,

I am thankful and grateful for all of the hours, days, months, and years we shared together. The love, support, strength, tenderness, care, and humor you shared with me will live on in my heart, life, and memories forever. I know not a day will pass that I won't think of you. You were the love of my life for the past 16 years and now I wonder how I'm going to get through life without you.

I will always love you and miss you so much, as will all of our family and friends, including Andi. I am comforted in knowing that you went to heaven exactly as you wanted, peacefully napping on the sofa with your iced tea and a football game on the television. I am also comforted knowing that you are no longer suffering trying to breathe. I'm thankful that we had a wonderful Christmas together before you had to go.

I thank God you were a Christian and never lost your faith in our Heavenly Father and our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I know you are resting safely in His loving care. I will continue to keep you in my prayers. You may not have been a saint, or even as good as you should have been in your younger years, but I can say that sometime before we met, God touched your heart and changed you into an honest, faithful, loving, and caring person. You were washed in the Blood of Jesus and all of your sins forgiven. You are His and I can be at peace knowing that. We all stray but thank God for His mercy to forgive us.

Our family has been very supportive and loving to both me and each other. All of your wishes are being fulfilled by all of us. You would be so proud of all of them. I can see in all of our children the love and respect they have for both of us. We are all heartbroken at losing you. I will continue to love and support our family, just as we did together. I know you are pleased and smiling down on each one of them. Please ask our Lord for His continued blessings and to keep all of us in His loving care.

One last thing Michael, I promise you will get that “one last ride” in your beloved car, just as you wanted. Mack is going to make sure it happens for us.

Until I see you again Honey, always remember, I love you.

With love,

Susie
