“ Jeff,

As many blessings as I can possibly give to you and your family. I know how much you will miss your father. I encourage you to draw on your strength and the strength of your family.

"For many things are still hidden from our eyes, that will be revealed when we too join you in your kingdom. We hope our attempt to serve you is pleasing to you, and Father we pray that you guide, and continue to protect us from the evil one, who is trying so hard to get us to give up on all your promises, and "settle" for what this World can provide. Father we know that way lies in certain separation from you, which is the second death. Father thanks again for the support and comfort we can find in you. Thank you for your Perfect Son Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for all our sins, that we may stand before you blameless, and live forever with you in Heaven above. In your Son's name We pray, Amen."
Wishing you and your family God's peace,

“ *Jeff and Family,
I know what a shock it is for me to realize he's gone, so I can't imagine what you are going through.
I will always have wonderful memories of the time we all spent together.
I rec'd an e-mail from him on the day that he passed and we were suppose to meet for dinner on 22 April, upon my return from Jordan.
Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need anything or just want to talk.
All my love, Deb*

“ Pat was a kind and friendly neighbor. It was always a pleasure to see him and Max out in the yard, and to stop and talk for a while. I will always think of Pat on my daily walk with my dog. He will be missed.

“ Pat and I were co-workers with FBIS until we both retired in 1994. Pat and Max stayed with us while visiting his mother in California several years ago. We could understand why he loved Max. Since I have animal allergies, Max was the only animal that stayed in our home. Pat will surely be missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ My deepest sympathy to Pat's family. I worked with Pat for a number of years and have kept in touch with him since our retirements. We shared a love of photography and exchanged many powerpoint programs, which we both kept. He was planning on coming to my part of the country and take pictures together at Oriental, N.C. I am already missing Pat and will think of him often. I know he adored his companion Max.

Another of Pat's little hobbies was looking for places for property to buy or invest in at various parts of the country, including my little area. He would have me check out a couple of places he found interesting. I am not sure he ever followed through on any of these little ventures.
