“ Mr Kerin was absolutely one of the finest americans I have ever known. He put god, his family and his country he served and believed in first.

He is (and remains) an inspiration to myself as an example of what a person can accomplish when they cut through the doubts of "what if's" in life and instead accomplish through actions what is right.

There are people in this world who will walk the rest of their days in freedom from political or religious oppression from all over the world because of what Paul believed in and acted on to make the world a better place.

Rest easy my friend, for you have truly fought the good fight, you have finished the race and you have kept the faith, god's kingdom is yours.

“ Mr. Kerin always was, is, and always will be a great inspiration to me. In the early days he inspired my desire for a great family; he provided an example for me to be the head not only as the wise man but also as the man who accepts and stands erect at the mistakes and hits his family receives. Mr. Kerin was the example of unflinchingly character in the way of handling any family problem. I realize that love is not so much what we give but rather is the reward itself, when I love my family. Mr. Kerin helped me with that kind of love full of generosity, but even more, charity.

“ When I lived in New York, I had the privilege to be welcomed and accompanied by the Kerin family. Paul, M. Kévin was always à warm, friendly and deep in touch person, who gave us his spirit with generosity and discrétion. I particularly remember our sky adventures where he was able to adapt his talents and sport qualities to those like me, were les experierced. This dîné always with humor and warm heart. Spécial greetigs of sympathie and our prayer for thé Kerins.
