“ To be in the company of Paul was always a privilege. I usually learned something interesting and valuable; the world always became a better place. I always parted from Paul with a smile on my face. Rest easy, gentle friend.

“ Uncle Paul was an amazing husband to my Moms sister. He was a great father, Grandfather and thankfully he was able to be there when his first Great grandson was born. He taught my Dad how to do woodworking and the cabinet business. Us kids would sit out on the porch and count how many train cars would go by as they worked in Uncle Paul's shop trying to get a job out on time. So many many great memories. You will be missed by many. Hugs I love you all.
