“ Please accept our sympathy for your loss. We only met Paul during his last days in the hospital, but our friendship and concern for him was strong. We know he is now in a better place, free from pain, maybe enjoying some of his favorite foods which he loved so much, but couldn't eat during those last days. We hope there's a good cup of coffee there for him, too. Thank you for your concern for us and may God Bless you all. The Bakers
