Dear Daddy,

This is the most difficult time. I never knew how much it would hurt losing you. I will never forget you or stop loving you, I will always keep you in my heart. The girls miss you dearly and I keep explaining to them that you are always watching over them now, that you are in their hearts too and we will see you one day again and just as Grandma was awaiting open arms for you I expect the same for me to you when my day comes. Just keep watch over the girls and myself and keep protecting us as you always have :), I do pray I have a long life with my girls, get to watch them grow up and have families as you did with me. I ask that GOD and You give me the strength to go on and do the things we use to do and the things we never got too. This note can go on forever and it will in my heart, and my thoughts, but I must let you go for now.(I posted this on the Manassas Journal not realizing it would not show at Prices)

*Love Your Daughter,
Angie Weston
