

Philip Edward Lavigne

December 30, 1935 - August 1, 2022

Philip Edward Lavigne of Manassas, Va. died August 1. He was the son of Francis E Lavigne and Anne Onges Lavigne of Brockton Massachusetts. He is survived by his wife Mary Cowles Lavigne and his three sons Patrick (Lari), Peter, and Timothy, and by his grandson Tyler Lavigne.

Mr. Lavigne began his career as an enlisted language specialist with the ASA and retired over 45 years later as a Senior Intelligence Officer to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

After his retirement he spent three years with Booze Allen Hamilton.

*A fun fact: In the late 1970's he was Commodore of the American Yacht Club, Berlin but he never sailed anything larger than their 29-foot Dragon!

Graveside service at Quantico National Cemetery will be private.
