“ John and I have such great memories of Phyllis and Rod. We always felt so welcome in their home and they extended their hospitality so generously. Twenty years ago, John took two of our daughters to Washington, DC when he made a business trip and they stayed with your folks. Then about eight years ago, I wanted to study at a psychoanalytic institute in Bethesda for a week and they graciously made me welcome. They were extraordinary people even in the "greatest generation." What an amazing reunion they are having. We send you our love and prayers.
