“ Mammaw I am going to miss you terribly. You were the glue that tried to keeo our family together. You never knew a stranger and was always there ti lend a helping hand. You were funny when you didn't know it and had a life time of fantastic stories to share; especially as a child walking through the snow to school uphill both ways with rags in your shoes! You made mist if my clothes as a child and made many crafts for me and my girls. I could not be more proud we had five generations and you were able to be with us. Although you could be stubborn in your ways it was an attribute to your life. I am most excited that you are now qt peace and reconnected with Papa Ray and Grandma Daisey. Heaven is singing with another angel. It seemed at times you were the only one who understood me and the sadness I felt, please give Tim a hug and a kiss for me. Parson has lost a human friend as I know you enjoyed seeing him even though mom and dad didn't want him in the house. Please know all the silly songs you sang to me I will never forget. I love you very much.

“ Extending heartfelt sympathy in the passing of Mrs Webb. Her departure leaves a deep void in the hearts of those who had the privilege of loving her and being loved by her. We met Mr and Mrs Webb and their family many decades ago at Colchester Church. Throughout all the many years of our friendship, I never knew Mrs Webb to be anything except kind, gracious and loving to those around her. Year after year she treated me and my entire family with honor and respect, always concerned with our well being and happiness. Her actions and her words were encouraging and life giving. When you looked into her smiling eyes, you knew she truly meant what she said. Mrs Webb lived her life as an example of Christ like love. She is now where her heart has probably yearned to be for a very long time, home! How awesome it is to know that we're not going to be separated from her for long. We can spend eternity with her. She is now rejoicing around the throne of her savior, reunited with all those who have gone before her. She is completely healed and whole. The confines and restraints of this earth has given way to the eternal resurrection power of almighty God, and she is having a wonderful time! Her beautiful voice has joined the cloud of witnesses cheering us on. Please know I and my whole family, truly loved and highly esteemed Mrs Webb. We love the entire Webb family and want you to know our prayers and thoughts are with each of you.

“ So sorry to hear of Phyllis passing. She was a dear friend. Martha and I always loved her visits with Jean. I bet they are all just talking away up in heaven 😊, she spoiled us with her banana pudding, as soon as she get to Jean and Joans we were sending Martha to the grocery store lol. My son terry loved to tease her with jeans parakeet. I just had that picture in my hands the other day, 2003. She enjoyed Terry for he brought over a stuffed beaver so the ladies could see, she'd get a tickle from his stories. Youre all in our thoughts and prayers..
God bless

“ We were so sorry to hear of Phyliss' passing. Our family has so many good memories of her coming to Indiana to visit. Many times we would think she wouldn't be able to make the trip, but there she would be! She was always bringing something new she had made to show us, and then Grandma or our Mom would want to make it next; and they would work on it together until they got it right! We saw her live out her faith in her life and know she is rejoicing in Heaven at being reunited with Ray and so many other loved ones. We pray knowing this will give her family much peace as they go through the next few days and weeks. Darlene, Sonny and Kevin; I know I speak for my whole family when I say, thanks for sharing your Mom with your "Indiana family"!

Love, Lisa New Sanders.

“ Dear Mom/Darlene, Sonny, & Kevin,

We were so sorry to hear of Memaw's passing. She was the best Grandmother to all of us. We loved her very much! We have so many happy memories about her and Poppa Ray. She was so talented, too! It was so much fun to go to their house and see the latest project! Everything she did from painting, ceramics, crocheting with her "needle," tatting and quilting was beautiful. Every time we thought she had mastered every craft, she found another like making the tote bags out of Wal-Mart plastic bags! She had busy hands! We enjoyed being with them on family holidays. The best times were just showing up over there and having a goodie or two. Her apple cake rivaled Poppa Ray's. The Peanut Butter Fudge and Bread Pudding was always in demand here at our house! We have tried time and again to master their recipes and cannot do it! What was her secret ingredient? Love? We will never forget all the nights we sat over there and played Scrabble and Push Rummy! She was so sweet and methodical and beat us often! How blessed we were to have her in our lives for her almost ninety years! Memaw is going to be missed terribly by so many people! But as long as we have the memories in our hearts, she won't be forgotten. Now that she is home with the Good Lord and her other beloved family members, we're sure she making and mending Angel Wings while catching up with everyone. Please know how much she loved each of you and that all the family is in our thoughts and prayers as we all grieve her loss.

Much Love to All,

Dale, Cindy, & Matthew,

Becky and her three of Memaw's Great-Great Grands, Kevin, Kirsten and Kayla
