“ Jack:
You have our deepest sympathy. You may not remember us but we lived across the street from the Crowleys. Priscilla and I were friends and shared the same love for Iris. We used to talk about flowers and gardening. When we bought our home in OK she was so kind to come over and notarize all the paper work. We always enjoyed visiting with her in the bank she was such a joy and made you feel so at home. She was a special lady and I will miss her.

“ Dearest Jack and Family: I just got off the phone with you and after shedding many tears I decided to look up Priscilla's obituary. It still seems so unreal. You and Priscilla came into our lives in June of 1977. You were our next door neighbors and we quickly began a close and dear friendship. How many holidays, birthdays, evenings did we share together laughing and laughing. I spent even more evenings with Priscilla because when you would travel she would keep me company because Philip always got home late from our restaurant. She was my best and dearest friend and I cried and cried the day you moved back east. While you moved far away, Priscilla and I always wrote or called each other but in the last year I had not really received much correspondence. I should have called! Priscilla was the most sweet and giving person I have ever met. She honestly cared about her friends and family and Jack, she adored you! We will miss her terribly but rest in the knowledge that we will see her again! Love in Christ, Sheila and Philip
