

Priscilla Comsti Reboca

October 27, 1954 - January 16, 2025

With great sadness, we announce the passing of our sister, Priscilla (Ate Cely) Reboca - a sister, aunt, grand aunt, cousin, and friend. Priscilla passed away peacefully in Northern Virginia - Miller Group Home in Alexandria, Virginia on the morning of Thursday, January 16, 2025.

Priscilla was born on October 27, 1954, in Sampaloc, Manila, Philippines to her parents, Amelia Reboca and Lorenzo Reboca, Sr. Priscilla, immigrated to the United States in the 1970s to be with her parents, siblings, and extended family.

Priscilla is survived by her five siblings – sisters Fe Belen (and her husband Robert), Vida, and brothers Lorenzo, Romeo, and Guillermo "Gary" (and his husband Larry); and her nieces: Kristine (and her husband Jesse), Mona, Sara Madison (and her husband Nino Morelli), Maisa (and her husband Justin), and nephews: Adam, Amin, Jonah, and John. She is also survived by her two great-nieces Kennedy and Skylar (daughters of Sara Madison). Her family will dearly miss Priscilla. Her loving memory will be carried on through those whose lives she's touched.

Priscilla's family will be hosting funeral services on Saturday, February 1, 2025: Viewing from 11 am to 1 pm EST at the Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street Manassas, VA 20110 followed by a final resting the same day, February 1, 2025, from 2- 3 pm EST, and burial beside her mother and grandmother at Stonewall Memory Gardens, 12004 Lee Highway Manassas, VA 20109.

Revelation 21:4 (English Standard Version)

“He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Hartwood Foundation, <https://hartwoodfoundation.com/get-involved>. The Miller Group Home under the Hartwood Foundation was where Priscilla resided for over 30 years
