“ I have fond memories of Raedell during our high school years. She was a very invigorating and beautiful young lady. I last saw Raedelle in 1961 when we were on a double date with another couple, including my future wife. The next year Mary and I were married. I have always felt that Raedell led me to this lady from western New York while attending the American University. Since I moved away from the Manassas area, I didn't have the opportunity to see and grow older with my former classmates. I do extend my sympathy with Raedell's family and know she must have given the fullness of life and love to you all. Jimmy Young

I Vic worked in the same office as Raedelle in Reston and we became friends. We chatted during the day when on break or for lunch. We'd talk about how retiring was going to be so wonderful C and that we would have to keep in touch. Every year we would send a Christmas card to each other. She was always on top of things and was the first one I always received-even 2019! And her handwriting was always so beautiful. I'm so sorry that I didn't know she was even sick. She never let in in her little notes. God bless you Raedelle. You are definitely missed! Love, Lou Ann Roark
