

Ralph Corum Jr.

January 9, 1947 - September 21, 2024

Ralph Corum Jr. was born January 9, 1947 in Fauquier County, Virginia and was affectionately known as “Tink”. Tink was the fourth of the eight children to the late Ralph and Pearl Corum. Tink’s journey ended, and he received his labor to reward on September 21, 2024 in Manassas, Virginia.

Tink attended Fauquier County Public Schools and like his dad was a farmer by trade. Tink was a quiet man and loved his quiet time. Tink was kind, passionate, loved the outdoors and taking in nature. Tink had a great smile that brightened your day. Tink was always in good spirits and loved telling stories to make you laugh.]

Tink loved using his hands, he made beautiful rings out of the handles of silver spoons. Tink also loved building things, he could take old bikes, wagons, and cars and rebuild them into something new. Tink loved cooking, and was famous for his chicken, his favorite was chicken wings.

Tink found the love of his life, the late Dorothy Barbour. He cherished and took care of her before her passing. They were together for over 50 years and together they raised their son and her children. Tink loved his family, his greatest joy was taking care of his beloved Dorothy, providing her with what she loved, having fun and being together.

Tink was preceded in death by his sisters Pauline Overhall and Audrey Stubbs.

Tink leaves to cherish his memory his son Ralph Barbour of Gainesville, VA; two stepdaughters, Karen Robinson (Douglas) of Manassas, VA and Dorothy Harris of Virginia Beach, VA. ; six stepsons Thomas William of Manassas, VA, Lawrence Barbour of Manassas, VA, Richard Barbor of Manassas, VA, Steve Barbour (Debra) of Manassas, VA and Willie Barbour (Joyce) of Centreville, VA; two brothers James Corum of Manassas, VA and Leo Corum of Manassas, VA; three sisters Agnes Campbell of Manassas, VA, Marion Williams of Dale City, VA and Evelyn Bouldens of Woodbridge, VA and a host of grandkids, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
