“ Ralph was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Virginia back in 2000. We worked together at my Uncle's company and had some great times and big laughs.

When the company folded, we found each other again when Ralph started working at Costco.

Ralph was a stand up guy who didn't have a mean bone in his body. He always asked about my family and always was amazed when he saw my son as he grew through the years.

I will miss his kind nature and good yet "crazy" sense of humor.

Rest in Peace my friend. You will never be forgotten.
