“ To Ram's Family,

I've only known Ram for over an year and he had a huge impact in my life professionally and personally. Having him mentor me at Versar was the best experience I've had as a professional but what I'll miss the most is our conversation about life in general and his passion, which was film making. I will always cherish our long talks and time we spent together at work. My sincerest and deepest condolences to out to his family and friends, his memory will live on forever and that's due to how much of an awesome person he was. Many blessings and prayers go out to his family. May you rest in peace big brother Ram.

“ *Dear Damayanthi,
My deepest condolences to you and your family on tragic loss of Ram. May God give you enough strength and courage to recover from this unexpected tragedy.
I know Ram from childhood days as we grew up together in SVU Campus , went to the same high school and then to SVUCE. Even though my interaction with Ram is very limited, I know him as a fun loving person. It is heart breaking to see him leave this world so abruptly.
I remember you from SVUCE days as very gentle and soft spoken. I am sure under your guidance, your young son will receive all the love and care from you as he grows up. Please take care and we will always keep you in our prayers.
With Sympathies,

“ Ramu and I met in Tirupati in 1989 and have been friends since, we went to college together along with Damayanthi. Ramu and I were inseparable for 4 years. As part of the "Wadekka" group, we made many memories to last a lifetime. I still can't come to terms with the loss of my friend. He lived life by his rules. I hope he is living it up where ever he is.

“ Dear Damayanathi and Family,

We are very sad to know about this unfortunate event and unbelievable to know the our beloved friend Ramu is not among us now.

I had the opportunity to meet him SF Bay area a year ago. He is the one who initiated the thought of our batch's reunion in 2018. I had many good conversation around this with him. It feels empty knowing that he will not be with us for the reunion in 2018.

We pray god to give you and your family all the strength to overcome from this irreplaceable loss.

With deepest sympathies,

Chenna & Family

“ Dear Damayanathi and Family,

We are very very sorry to hear about the sudden departure of our beloved classmate Ram. Our deepest condolences. We keep you and your family in our prayers.

I was very fortunate to have met him about a month ago in a totally unexpected way at Zurich. But very heart broken that this tragedy happened so soon after this surprise meet.

The fact that Ram took an instantaneous decision and drove all the way from Luxembourg to Zurich to meet us is a testament to how affectionate he was towards his friends.

May his soul rest in peace.

With heavy heart,

Krimo and Family (Krishna Mohan, Mech)
