“ My prayers, thoughts and sympathy to the family of Aunt "Randi" Siron. She was a beautiful, kind hearted human being who showed me love from the first time I met her at Shirley and Denny's house. Aunt "Randi" always sent me the most beautiful cards which were always such a source of encouragement. We always prayed for each other and our loved ones whom she loved very much. I pray that God pours out an extra portion of His strength and courage upon each of you, especially during this difficult time. May God surround you with His presence and fill you with His peace which surpasseth all understanding. Aunt "Randi" is asleep with Christ Jesus and there is life eternal in him. She closed her eyes on earth, but opened her eyes in Heaven. God's Love and Blessings.

Love,
Angie

“ Randi, you sent us countless letters here on earth, it is only appropriate that we send you a final letter of farewell. Regardless of your own circumstances, you always found room in your heart and in your prayers for your friends and family. You had such a zest for life. You could always get a hug and sneak a kiss, even from the most reluctant. We will miss your smile, but we will see you soon. Love, a hug, and a kiss...

“ One of the best memories I have of Mom was a visit with her earlier this year. My wife and I were driving her to some destination and she was joyously singing along with us to “King of the Road”. I am thankful for that and so many good memories of Mom.
