

Randy Scott Hughes

July 6, 1962 - May 18, 2013

RANDY SCOTT HUGHES, age 50 passed away on Saturday, May 18, 2013 in Manassas, Virginia.

He was born on July 6, 1962 in Alexandria, Virginia to David and Shirley (Fleming) Hughes. Randy was an avid Redskins Fan and loved the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing.

Survivors include his wife Melissa Wright Hughes; parents: David and Shirley Hughes; three children: Anthony Scott, Erica Dawn and William Matthew Hughes; two brothers: Jason and Ricky Hughes and a very special friend Ron McCuin.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, May 24, 2013 at 5:00 PM at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia. Interment will be private.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of donations to: Capital Care Hospice, 10530 Linden Lake Plaza Suite 200, Manassas, Virginia 20109 in loving memory of Randy Scott Hughes

Tribute Wall

“ I send my prayers to you Mr. and Mrs. Hughes. Losing Randy is like losing a piece of the only happy memories of living in Va. Hopping my backyard fence into your yard and hearing Randy say Looooooooo, Randy and Charlie were my guys and the whole gang. Love to you all.

Lori Helmick - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

EV

“ I would like you to know that you and your family have been in my prayers since I heard about Randy’s passing. It’s really hard to find words in times like this. But we must remember that life is a gift and not a right. To see it that way changes our whole perspective. It helps us focus more on the being thankful than on being resentful. I don’t want to be simplistic about this, as if a few words from the lips of a man could suddenly ease your deep grief and lift you up. But if you see Randy’s life as a gift from God and be grateful for the time you had together and what the life and death of Randy has taught you what a difference it could make. Then try to focus on the joy Randy has brought to you, the blessing he has been, on the influence he has had. Gratitude helps lessen grief. Now the question is, what has Randy’s death done for you? Of course it has brought you great grief. I understand that. But it can do more. Sometimes a death can bring us closer to God. Sometimes they teach us things we would never learn otherwise. We must remember that your Randy was a gift and he has left you with a legacy of memories. There is a simple statement in the bible about physical life it says:

“As for man, his days are as grass, he flourishes like a flower of the field; the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place to remembers its nor more

(Ps.) 103:15-16.

None of us are indestructible. Death is inevitable. Life is a gift and we must thank God for the time we had.

Ezequiel Vasquez - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

BD

“ I am heartbroken at Randy's passing. It is akin to one of my own leaving the nest. The boys have been friends since grade school. On the other hand, he is no longer suffering in this world. I sincerely hope he is in a better place with no pain or worries. He was such a dear fellow.

Bonnie DeHart - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

MH

“ Shirley and Gene I wish I could be there with you. Some problems here. Be there with hugs and kisses. Will talk to you soon. Love Mary

Mary Hall - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

LS

“ So very sorry for your loss. Prayers are with you.

Louella Stanley - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

VM

“ Shirley please except Condolences. May God comfort you and family during your loss.

Victor Mullins - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

KP

“ Randy, you will be missed by so many people that love you...I remember how you and Chucky used to play, play so hard you guys wouldn't even come in to eat...Aunt Shirley and Uncle Gene you two mean so much to me, and I am so very sorry Randy is gone. My prayers are with you all and I am so sorry I can't be there. My love to you all...

Kathy Phillabaum - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

VR

“ Please know that you have our most heartfelt sympathies. Losing a part of yourself like this is so overwhelming; It’s heartbreaking.

Our thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family.

Valentina and Jim Rusnock - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM

RS

“ To the Hughes Family,
Please except my sincere condolences for the loss of your beloved Randy. I have known Randy for 20 years, when we both lived in Roanoke and worked together as painters for 9 years. We have always kept in close touch and I will especially remember our great times camping together. I miss him already and would love to pay my respects at his memorial service tonight, but can not because of transportation difficulties. I will be there is spirit. Your friend always
Richard

Richard Shahinian - August 30, 2013 at 01:46 PM