

Ranjith K. Varma

January 4, 1968 - September 9, 2023

Ranjith was a loving husband, father, son, brother, uncle and friend who touched many lives with his kindness, humor, and generosity. He was a treasured colleague at the International Monetary Fund where he worked for over 20 years. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, playing cricket, gardening, or cooking up spicy delicacies. As an avid hiker, nature enthusiast, and a dedicated mentor to young scouts, his unparalleled spirit of adventure took him to many places. His courage and passion for life was an inspiration to all who knew him. Ranjith is survived by his wife Bindu; his children Varun and Nikhil; his mother Sneha Prabha; his brother Santhosh; his sister Deepa; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. We invite you to join us for viewing and memorial service to honor Ranjith's memory and celebrate his life, on Sunday September 17, 2023, from 9 AM - 12 NOON at PIERCE FUNERAL HOMES in Manassas Virginia.

We are grateful for your love and support during this difficult time

“ I had the privilege to spend a few days with Ranjith sir on our Trek to Deoriaral Chandrashila in March 2023

His positive attitude and motivation stuck out to me - at the age of 55 he was climbing the mountain better than others half his age

He was also very compassionate and thoughtful - a true leader of the group and a genuine person

Wish all the strength and condolences to his family to bear this heavy loss 🙏

Kartik Dhar - September 23, 2023 at 12:44 AM

“ I met him on a trek in Feb- March this year for the first time I left my watch in the hostel after the trek so called Ranjith sir as he was still in Rishikesh that time.. he had to fly via delhi so I wanted to request him to bring back my watch Not only did he offer to do that but offered to come to our hotel and drop it personally too.. I'll remember him as a kind man who went beyond his limits always Glad he could visit family in India right before this :( Praying for him to be at peace and family to move forward with courage and his spirit always
