“ I didn't know Bonnie as she and Ray met after I graduated from BDHS. I remember visiting Ray's home many times when I was younger with my grandparents who were friends with his family. Very kind and generous family.

“ I met Ray when I became the Horticulture teacher at Brentsville. It was a pleasure working alongside him. He always greeted me with a “Good morning Mrs. Smith”. Occasionally, he would come to my classroom after school and apologize over and over before he had to tell me of a mess my kids had made, usually in front of the dumpsters. A lot of institutional knowledge is gone now. We will all miss Ray and his quiet service.

“ Ray was such a kind person, a pillar of Brentsville District High School. He was always a calm steady presence at the place. A "Good Morning " from him automatically made my teaching day better. I am so sorry to hear of his and his wife's passing “ Ray was my 'go-to' guy',,,broken window, spilled liquids, whatever...Ray always rescued me. He had that quiet manner that could calm the most upset student, even that kid who broke a window by pulling it down on his own head.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Ray for nearly 40 years, first as a teacher at Brentsville, then as a substitute teacher. Ray always had a smile on his face and always greeted me whenever he saw me with a "Hello Mr. Knight." He was a true pillar of the Brentsville community. I never heard Ray complain or say anything negative about anything. He was a true gentleman and treated faculty, students, and staff with respect. I know that his passing has left a big hole in the Brentsville heart. I was so glad when they made a tribute to him in a recent Brentsville yearbook. Ray may be gone, but his spirit will always be with Brentsville. He will never be forgotten and will be a hard man to replace. Rest in peace, dear Ray.
