“ Deb, we are sorry to hear of the passing of your sister, Becky. Our prayer for you and your family as you go through this season of grief is that you will find comfort and encouragement in the words of our Savior who said, "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also" John 14:3. Thank God for sharing her with you and cherish the wonderful memories you've created.

“Our” dear Becky. She wasn't just MY dear Becky -- but everyone's dear Becky. She was the sweetest, kindest and one of the most self-liss persons I ever met. I consider myself blessed to not only know her, but to have been one of the recipients of her many thoughtful handwritten notes. She was always writing sweet, thoughtful notes to encourage others. To know Becky was a blessing and such a joy. God calls the good ones doesn't he! Her sure got one of the best when he called Becky home. I'm thankful too that he took her when he did, so she didn't have to suffer any longer. Thank you God and thank you Becky for the blessing you were to me and to so many others.

“ Becky was such a nice, generous, loving and genuine person. I can remember meeting her shortly after my sister and Wes got enaged, and I was instantly drawn to her compassionate, loving nature. I enjoyed seeing her at family events and getting to chat and catch up with her. I could also see how much Becky loved all her family. My heart aches for her loved ones. Not only has heaven gained a new angel the stars will shine brighter now. Until we meet again Becky, may you rest in peace. Lots of love.

“ Becky was an amazing person. I remember meeting her for the first time in church. No matter what kind of day I was having she always made it brighter. During the difficult times I was facing in my life she always made time to send me a card or drop a note in the mail to me. That meant the world to me. A special lady all around. She will truly be missed by so many no doubt. God got a special angel that's for sure. My thoughts and prayers with the entire family. Hugs Bren
