“ To his wife and family,

Sorry for your loss. He was a Antilles HS friend; it was nice seeing him and meeting his wife in our class reunion in PR in August 2017. He shared his first University years at Bradley.

*Thoughts and thoughts are with your family.

“ Antilles High school class of 77 extends our deepest sympathy to Rene’s family and all of whom he helped while on his life journey. A true leader on multiple fronts Rene brought peace and was always called upon when success had no alternate course of action. As a warrior leader his commitment to his troops generated mission success, 24/7, 365. Rene will be missed by many but he left us all with the gifts that he shared selflessly. RIP my friend, A Nickel in the grass. Cesar “Rico” Rodriguez, AHS 77, CID81.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family from myself, my spouse Elizabeth and the whole Class of 1977 from the Colegio de La Salle in Bayamon, PR.

While Rene left us after the 10th grade, he was always an honorary member of our class, and a dear friend over the years.

In '04 some of the members then living in Florida got together, and Rene was kind enough to come share a meal.

Hasta siempre Rene...
