“ *Rickey... I will truly miss you, if I knew on February 18th that it would be my last time talking to you I would have kept you on the phone longer laughing until my stomach hurt always ... you had a way no other had, you had an answer when no one else had the answer. You hardly ever complained, always there to listen and then tell me what you think. I'm glad you're not in pain no longer and I know you are healed. I should have told you on February 18th I love You.

“ He had the gift to make people laugh, the gift of going the extra mile, the gift of gab, truth and keeping positive vibes and good feelings when life suggested otherwise...I loved our conversations, I loved his sassy/ classy presence...I loved his determination to live and I adored that Pretty Rickey, no nonsense Attitude that was like no other...Our last conversation was about old times in Roosevelt in high school and how so many of us stay connected through the years...Will miss his presence and his commitment to Family and Friends! Rest in peace Homeboy, the pain is gone! Victory is won!

“ Rickey was a free spirit who was blessed with the ability to made people laugh. He was also one to reach out and keep in touch with friends old and new. His infectious spirit will be missed, he was one of a kind and a loving individual to those he called "friend" My continued prayers to the Arzu family

“ I still wonder if this is a dream cause we talked every day up to Feb 25th and now I have no one to talk to , the way we talked, he was my confidant. I will cherish the days we had together and the bond we had formed. But I have found comfort that he is in a better place out of pain and smiling above me always, and our paths will meet again in our next life and everything will be alright, I pray that his family will be well in his absence since he was the glue that kept them together. I will check on them and will not forget them ever.

*Love and friendship everlasting,
Derrick Donaldson*
